Oddly Enough - UK Reuters

Palestinians flock to lamb with Allah's name

Wed Mar 24, 12:12 PM ET

HEBRON, West Bank (Reuters) - Hundreds of Palestinians have gathered to see a lamb born with what looks like "Allah" spelled out in Arabic on its coat.

Onlookers in the West Bank town of Hebron said the real significance was the fact the animal was born on Monday -- the day Israel killed Hamas leader Ahmed Yassin.

"This is clear evidence of God's existence," the lamb's owner Yahya Atrash told Reuters Television. "It was born with the words 'Allah' on one side and 'Mohammed' on the other."

Palestinians said the Arabic letters of the name of God could be made out on the lamb's left flank, but it was harder to see the name of the prophet Mohammed.
